

THE EVENING BULLETIN

THURSDAY, MAY 21, 1885.

SENATOR BLACKBURN has returned to his home at Versailles.

The Mercury boasts that Carlisle is the cleanest town in the State.

JOHN ROACH's steamer, Dolphin, has made another failure on her trip to New York.

Mr. SAM. WALTON, of Lancaster, is an applicant for the office of Consul to Buenos Ayres.

It is said that Col. Charles S. Denby, of Evansville, Ind., will be appointed Minister to China.

EPHRAIM MOORE, of Lewis County, has been granted a pension. His arrears amounted to $900.

THERE is every probability that the iron-workers at Pittsburgh will strike against a reduction of wages.

THERE is an increased interest in the culture of tobacco in Lewis County, and a large area will be planted this year.

The earnings of the Louisville and Nashville railroad for the second week of May were $249,405, a decrease of $12,029 from the corresponding week of May, 1884.

A vicious fight is being made in the speaker District Attorney of Kentucky. Speaker Kirkpatrick opposes the appointment of Judge Wickliffe, and favors either Mr. Fleming or Judge Beckner.

THE extradition papers in the case of Maxwell, the murderer of Preller, have been sent to the State Department by the authorities of St. Louis. Maxwell is a prisoner at Auckland, New Zealand.

THE Illinois senate has passed a bill taxing telegraph companies three per cent. per annum on their gross receipts in that State. The same body adopted a bill providing that the maximum rent for a single telephone shall not exceed $3 a month, or $2.50 each for more than one.

THE report of the State Commissioner of Agriculture for April says of tobacco: There is no change in the report of this crop since last month. An unusually large crop was planted and raised in Kentucky last year, and a large proportion of it is yet unused. From present indications there will be a much less acreage planted this season.

THE first dismissal of a clerk within the grades protected by the Civil Service Law for offensive partisanship, is said to be that of Chauncey G. Heath, of Wisconsin, from a $1,400 clerkship in the Third Auditor's office of the Treasury Department. The reason assigned for the removal is the prominent part taken by Mr. Heath in the late campaign, while on leave of absence from the department. Congressman Bragg, of whose district Heath is a resident, is said to have urged his removal.

MR. CARLISLE's objection to the appointment of Judge Wickliffe, as District Attorney, has been considered by the President and it is now thought probable that Buckner, whom Mr. Carlisle is backing, will be named for the place. It is said at Washington that the President is less inclined than ever to appoint anybody supported by Senators Beck or Blackburn, and is disposed to give careful heed to the suggestions of Mr. Carlisle. The appointment of Buckner, it is conceded, would be a very strong one.

THE largest dry goods sale ever made took place in New York City one day last week. The attendance was large and consisted of buying from all parts of the country, 20,000 packages of goods were sold at auction at prices near the regular schedule, and brought the enormous total of $1,750,000. There are two theories on which these satisfactory results rest. One is that the buyers had come so far that they were bound to purchase at some price; the other that they believe the times are growing brighter. Possibly there is some truth in both explanations.

THE New York Legislature has passed, by a large majority, a bill prohibiting the construction of tenement houses in New York City of a greater height than eighty feet, even in streets that are more than sixty feet wide. Eighty eminent New York physicians supported the bill on sanitary grounds, and the fire department and the board of underwriters earnestly protested against the further building of such colossal structures as dangerous alike to life and property. There is no other city in the United States where tenement houses have been carried so high in the air, or where other houses were so much overshadowed and endangered by them. The bill was not passed too soon, for preparations were being made to run up more of these ten-story blocks, which will now have to be kept down to an elevation of eighty feet or less.

GREAT FIRES.

South Mountain a Scene of Fierce Flames and Aerial Grandeur.

MIDDLETOWN, Md., May 21.—The most extensive mountain fire that has ever been known in this section is now raging on South Mountain, south of this place. It broke out near Black Rock, and has been burning fiercely ever since. A large number of men are fighting the fire night and day, but so soon as they make progress in one place the fire starts in another, showing plainly that some one is firing the woods. A fire started in another section and crossed over the mountain. The sight at night of an awful grandeur, and all day dense clouds of black smoke and steam rise from the flames about high above them. The track of the fire is over two miles in length, and thousands of acres of forest have been laid bare. One man lost $500 rails and the general loss is very heavy, though no dwellings have been in danger. A young man living near Wolfville is suspected of being the incendiary, and he is being closely watched.

FAMILY WAR PREVENTED.

Serious Complications of an Impending Wedding Resulting Disastrously.

LYNNHURST, Va., May 21.—At Feller Mill village, in Albemarle county, a general fight occurred between two families and their connections, in which pistols and other weapons were used. The officers of the law, however, had heard that the affray would take place and were prepared and stopped the fight before any blood was shed. A short time ago a handsome widow was engaged to be married to a prominent young man of the village, who, on his last visit to her home, had visited the father and a well known physician, together. What he had discovered so worked upon the young man's mind that he shortly afterwards died a lunatic. The parties concerned all occupy high social positions and until now the matter has been kept from the public.

A $200,000 TRADE.

ALBERT G. NETTER Sells This Amount of Hamilton County, Ohio, Bonds.

CINCINNATI, O., May 21.—Albert G. Netter sold to a syndicate of lenders $100,000 of Hamilton county 4 per cent. 30-50 bonds, and $100,000 of 5 per cent. ditto, but did not know what the coupons of the syndicate, as he had traded through Simon & Hummel brokers. When asked what price he had received by the sale he said that he had promised not to tell. "But," said he, "it was a side figure." The sale was not reported at the stock exchange, where much interest in it was manifested.

A RASCAL CAUGHT.

An Abolitionist and Embezzler Run Down After Many Months.

BRUCEVILLE, O., May 21.—A telegram reached this city announcing that Cha. B. Boyd, late manager of the Hamilton Falls of Music, has been arrested in South Carolina by a detective employed by Hamilton to track him. Boyd absconded last October, after swindling Hamilton out of a large amount. He also absconded about $500 from Sherred, Mooney & Co., Steubenville bankers, on forged notes. Other citizens and neighboring farmers were also swindled by the sleek rascal.

ILLINOIS BURGARS.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., May 21.—A burglary of remarkable boldness was committed at Ellsworth. The general store of Charles Shunkle was broken into by burglars using a battering-ram to smash in the door. They then exploded the safe and got about $500 and escaped. The burglary was not known until in the morning.

During the services at a funeral in Pittsburgh the front part of the house gave way, and sixty-five persons were precipitated into a cellar. Several were seriously hurt, two of them fatally.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Quotations of the Stock, Produce and Cattle Markets, May 20.

New York.—Money easy at 1 1/4 per cent. Exchange dull and steady. Governments dull. Currency, silver, 124; gold, four, coupon, 121 1/2; four-and-a-half, 119; bid.

The market opened dull and steady and during the first sales Union Pacific was bid up to 1 1/2. The rest of the call of the selling of Vanderbilt's shares was commenced, which continued with little interruption to noon. The selling was influenced by the heavy falling off in the earnings of Lake Shore, as shown by its quarterly statement to March 31, and the reports to the effect that the New York Central was not earning her rated share. The prices at noon were down from 1 1/2 to 1 1/4. At the time of the writing the market is dull and featureless.

BEHOLD we're forced
To say it again,
Gardens are dying
For want of rain.
Gardens are dying
It couldn't be "waa"
Nothing to do
But growl and "come."

MAYVILLE Commandery, K. T., is expected home to-morrow night.

Business over the Kentucky Central Railroad is reported good this week.

The Mammoth Rink closes to-morrow night for the season. A children's carnival is the attraction.

MESSEY, COLLINS, RUDY & Co. are making specifications for an addition to the Kimbrough House, at Carlisle.

Rev. B. A. FRANKLIN, of this city, is conducting a very interesting meeting at the Independent Baptist Church (colored), at Paris.

A substantial iron crossing is being laid on Second street, at the corner of Market. It is a good piece of work and an important improvement.

If you want a child's carriage you can not do better than to go to Henry Ott's furniture emporium, where there is a large stock. He has lately cut the prices twenty per cent.

The opening of the art room of Messrs. Leyland & Walsh, in Zweigart block, last night, was well attended and everybody seemed pleased with the display. When you want anything in their line give them a call.

Two boys who are charged with stealing two kegs of beer from Fred Otto's ice house, on Sunday morning, are hiding in the hills near this city with the hope of avoiding arrest. The officers are on the lookout for them.

The Carlisle Mercury says: The Mayville Commandery passed on to Frankfort Tuesday morning accompanied by Hauke's Brass Band. The Mayville boys never fail to go fixed, and a more liberal set never traveled.

To take rust out of steel, rub the steel with sweet oil; in a day or two rub with finely powdered unslacked lime until the rust all disappears, then oil again, roll in woolen and put in a dry place, especially if it be table cutlery.

The Clark County Democrat, in noticing the death of Mr. Thomas F. Donovan, says: "He was foreman of this office for some two years, and a nobler, truer or more kind-hearted man it was never our lot to know."

JUDGE W. H. POLLITT, one of the oldest citizens of East Mayville, died yesterday about one o'clock, after an illness of several weeks. He was at one time a Justice of the Peace and was an honest man and a good citizen.

The new dry goods store of Messrs. Browning & Barkley, on Second street, A. R. Burgess' old stand, was opened to the public yesterday, and a very handsome display made. The stock is all new embracing everything required for the trade of this neighborhood, while the prices are as low as the most exacting could expect. You are invited to call and see the stock.

False! False! False!

Four millions of false teeth are manufactured in this country in a year. This is a true statement, and it is also true that the decay of natural teeth has greatly increased among people who do not take good care of their stomachs. When your stomach is out of order, and your digestive powers need tuning up, try Brown's Iron Bitters. There are some preparations of iron which injure the teeth, but the doctors testify Brown's Iron Bitters is free from the objection.

The Boston Quintette Club is thus noticed by the Detroit News: It is not too much to say that one of the most delightful concerts ever given in this city was the one listened to last night by a large audience at Harmonic Hall.

The temptation is to be extravagantly enthusiastic with the recollection of the individual performances fresh in mind. The programme opened with a movement from Mendelssohn's Quintette in B flat, op. 87, and closed with the Turkish march from Beethoven's "Ruins of Athens." These were the only concert numbers rendered by the Quintette club, but they were sufficient to show that the changes that the organization has undergone have in no degree destroyed its ability to grasp the hidden beauties of instrumental music and disclose them by delicate, spirited and intelligent interpretation.

WASHINGTON.

Kentuckians at the National Capitol—Movements About the Departments.

[Special Correspondence of the BULLETIN.]
WASHINGTON, May 18, 1885.

Representative Randall has been in Washington since the adjournment of Congress, with the exception of a few days in Philadelphia, attending the funeral of a near relative, and during that time has been a daily visitor at the White House or in the departments hunting up patronage, while his noisy tour has been making tireless boasts about his supreme influence with the administration. Not satisfied with extolling Mr. Randall for his zeal, the political friends of the Pennsylvania have not hesitated to institute comparison between Mr. Randall, as a favored counselor of the President, and Mr. Carlisle, as an able Democrat, given to vagaries and indifference whether the offices are dealt out to Democrats or Republicans. The statement made some time since that the President does not like Mr. Carlisle and has no sympathy with his views has been revived, presumably in the effort to give expression to Mr. Cleveland does sympathize with Mr. Randall in his views. To Mr. Randall's devoted admirers, therefore, the appearance in Washington of Mr. Carlisle has had very much the demoralizing effect that a red rag is said to produce upon a bull. Saturday, a day which the President had reserved for himself, he made Mr. Carlisle an exception to the very rigid rule excluding visitors, and had a talk with the recipient of a number of hours. He is still in the city and it is not probable that during his stay he will find occasion to call many times at the White House, in which event he will be received with equal cordiality with his opponent for the Speakership of the next House of Representatives.

First Comptroller Durham is visiting his home in Danville, Ky.

Minister Buck sails for Peru at noon Wednesday. He will be banqueted in New York Tuesday evening.

General James F. Robinson, appointed Revenue Collector for the Ashland district, is the recipient of a number of complimentary notes from the Washington Press.

Judge Chenoweth, as First Auditor of the Treasury, has one of the most important offices in the gift of the administration. In his duties he credits all accounts of the customs and revenue service, salaries and accounts in the patent office, accounts of judges, clerks of courts, and marshals, accounts of the officers in charge of the public buildings in the District of Columbia, the Department of Agriculture, the coast and geodetic survey, steamboat inspection service, life-saving service, the mints, District of Columbia, the Public Printer, and the contingent expenses of all the departments.

His Father's Pride.

Two little Upper Main street boys in skirts are laying siege to the heart of a wee damsel who sits on the front seat at the primary school, and is dividing her attention between both of her admirers, who are dead in love. A funny thing was that which one of them did one day this week. His papa gave him a nickel for being a good boy. He didn't buy candy, although that was the original object for which he obtained it. Not at all. He went over post haste to the abode of his little lady and gave her the money on condition that she would hold his hand and lead him to the school the next day. The trade was struck and the next morning the programme was carried out. The fond father of the little miss saw as the result of this secret transaction, one fearful little boy in a blue bow tie waist and coat sweeping bitter tears over the front yard fence, while down the street, in proud consciousness of having secured a dearest rival, marched the other boy hand in hand with the little girl. The father has great hopes of his boy who struck the bargain.

COUNTY POINTS.

Germantown.
Born, Saturday to the wife of Ben Tyler, a girl.
Mr. C. C. Coburn visited Hebron Saturday evening.
Telephones from here to Mayville is again being talked.
General City Reeve, of Minerva, was here Saturday evening.
Mr. A. H. Watt, of Mayville, spent Saturday and Sunday here.
Miss Rose, of Fern Leaf, spent Sunday with Miss Robb Savage.

The slings must go, ditto, those boats at the fair ground. What next?

We are glad to note that Mr. J. W. Elliott is able to be on the streets again.

W. C. Johnson, of the co-operative store, is in the Queen City for new goods.

Wallace's circus at August, next Saturday will draw a large crowd from here.

T. & W. have all the fenses billed for miles around, telling of their new goods.

Eleventh first Saturday in June, Captain Hiles is a candidate for city judge.

Joe Harris of Augusta, was here last week. Joe is a dandy and we are always glad to see him.

Dr. Dimmitt has been on the sick list for several days past, but we are glad to say he improves.

Mr. Greenberg Guttscher, of Peshawar, Ohio, is here visiting his old friends. He is talking of moving here.

The Harp Band on Broadway, opened out Monday evening. It will continue nightly until cold weather sets in.

Tons and tons of business dealt. Eggs ten cents, butter fifteen cents, spring chickens five per dozen, and very scarce.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Roe Beckett is still on the sick list.

Dr. William R. Wood is still in very feeble health.

Mr. James Perry, an old and respected citizen of Manchester, died of apoplexy on the 19th instant.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Ferris and son, of Waxahatchie, Texas, are the guests of W. W. Coulter, at the Riverside Hotel.

Rev. Father Jones, of Mt. Sterling, and Mr. Michael O'Hara, of Cynthiana, were in Mayville yesterday to attend the funeral of Mr. Thomas F. Donovan. Mr. Richard Deverick and John Hayes, of Winchester, were here on the same mission.

The funeral of Mr. Thomas F. Donovan yesterday, was probably the largest ever witnessed in Mayville not conducted by societies. The services at the church by Rev. Father Glorieu were very touching and a worthy tribute to the many virtues of the deceased. The funeral services at the grave were numerous and very beautiful.

Why He Was Thankful.

[Philadelphia Call.]
Bub—"Are you going to be my new papa?"
Accepted Sailer—"Yes, my dear child."
"Have you got my yet?"
"Why? Why? Why? I don't need a wig."
"Why do you ask?"
"My other papa always said he was so thankful his hair wasn't fast to him."

OBITUARY.

[From the Central Methodist.]
Coria Lee, daughter of Jacob and Abi Marsh, was born in Charleston Bottom, Mason County, April 1st, 1841; joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the age of eleven years, and died at the place of her nativity, November 5, 1884. The funeral services were conducted at the residence of her father, March 29, 1885, from Revelations 14:13. Her father, who was a zealous and devoted Christian, died at the age of 80 years, and was buried in the same grave as his daughter. Her mother, who was a devoted Christian, died at the age of 70 years, and was buried in the same grave as her daughter. Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, joints and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present as flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A imposture, like perspiration, is often the result of a cold, after getting warm is a common attendant. The cure for piles is a common attendant. The cure for piles is a common attendant. The cure for piles is a common attendant.

George T. Wood, the Druggist, who is always looking out the interest of customers, has now secured the sale of Dr. Bosanck's cough and lung syrup, a remedy that never fails to cure coughs, colds, pains in the chest and all lung affections. Price 50 cents and $1.00 samples free.

FASTING AND PRAYING

HOW THE REBEL, RIEL, SPENDS HIS TIME IN CONFINEMENT.

Said to Act Like a Coward, and Spends His Time Kissing the Crucifix. He Feels He Will be Hanged—The Insanity Dodge—Northwest News.

WINNIPEG, MAN., May 21.—Rebels continue to surrender to Middleton by the dozen, and over 150 guns have already been received, comprising Winchester, and four long-pieces, breech-loaders, and flintlocks. As the rebels come in they are asked their names, and, if suspected as ring-leaders, are made prisoners; otherwise they are allowed to go home. The rebel loss is something tremendous, far greater than was imagined. Father Loucas states that he buried fifty-nine bodies of half-breeds. From information given him by a half-breed woman he believed the rebel dead amounts to between seventy and eighty half-breeds and Indians. He also expects that many more will die of their wounds, as they have been neglected or carried away, and have no medical attendance.

Two of Riel's councilors who are wounded, being asked for their opinion of Riel, said he had gone down in their estimation, as he had duped and deserted his followers. A scout has been detached through the country to tell the rebels if they come in and surrender they will be allowed to go back to their farms, except the ring-leaders and members of Riel's council, who will be given a fair trial. A scout succeeded in finding where Dumont was lying, twelve miles from Batouche, and by an Indian messenger asked him to surrender himself, promising him a fair trial. Dumont returned answer that he thought the scout was foolish, but that he would think over the matter. It is most probable that he will surrender eventually if he finds escape impossible. The scout succeeded in inducing a large number of half-breeds to come in.

In the room where Riel's council met was found a paper containing the following list of councilors: Jean Baptiste Boucher, Donald Ross, Pierre Henry, Gabriel Dumont, Joseph always absent, Moise Quette, Damocles Cayere, David Tournelle, Pierre Guindrey, Louis Riel, Albert Montmar, Albert Ajajin, Bonet Blanc for White Cap, Charles Trottier, Bas Paul, N. Delorme, E. Parenteau, E. Champagne, Philippe Garret, secretary of council; H. Dumas, adjutant; Octave Bognier, assistant secretary of the council; Joseph Vandal, lieutenant of guards; Antoine Champagne, A. Furgon, captain of the horse guards; Alois Hebeuse Batt, the Sioux Interpreter; N. Grouau and Thomas Vermette, messengers of council. Eleven of the number are prisoners and one is killed.

A priest, who went into Middleton's camp, announced that 157 half-breeds had been killed during the fighting. Among the number was Chief White Cap, who was killed by Capt. Howard. The latter distinguished himself by capturing Riel's standard. Riel acts like a craven coward, and spends his time after capturing and kissing the crucifix. He will doubtless play the lunacy role, and already some of his religious sympathizers are paying the way for such a course by giving it out that he has always been crazy. E. N. Channette, who was engineer of the Beaufort Asylum, Quebec, when Riel was an inmate in 1878, and saw Riel every day for two years, says he was perfectly sane. He believes he was only sent there for political protection. Riel then expressed a threat that the Northwest would suffer before he was done with it. He was never treated as an inmate, but had perfect freedom about the institution.

In the rebel government papers was found a plan of the intended attack on the troops the night before the Fish Creek battle was fought. The troops have marched to Prince Albert, but are expected to return soon.

There is much excitement in Calgary, citizens being agitated over the reported proximity of Indians to the town. Big Bear's band was reported within forty miles of the town. Col. Aymot telegraphed for more troops. A courier arrived in from McLeod, asking for assistance there, as the Indians are causing apprehension. The Indians have made another raid at Red Deer river on McKenna and Richards' houses. Two companies of the Winnipeg light infantry started for Edmonton under Commander Lewis, with seventy-eight tons of supplies. Signal fires were burning on the hills, showing that the Indians are making preparations.

To Armstrong, the man who captured him, Riel said Lawrence Clark, of the Hudson Bay company, precipitated the uprising. The half-breeds were celebrating the feast of St. Joseph when Clark arrived from Winnipeg. He first mocked their religion and then told them that 300 soldiers were crossing to join in the festival, and would give them all they wanted in the way of ceremony if they did not go back to their homes and abandon their nonsense. Riel was absent from Batouche at the time, and on his return found his people all in arms and determined to plunder the stores before the troops mentioned by Clark arrived. Riel denies that he was the leader of the rebellion. He asserts his innocence, and says that he can prove that he wanted to go back to the United States, but would not be allowed to do so. He expects to be hanged, and devotes the greater part of his time to fasting and praying.

Among the rebel papers captured at Batouche are minutes of the council, in which Albert Montmar, who is held, was heavily implicated in the rebellion, taking a prominent part in the meetings and having command of a number of men at Duck Lake. He has been put in irons. Among others held are Fisher, the rebel governor, two Tournais from Fish Creek; Lannontage, rebel musketry instructor; Jackson, Riel's secretary, and Dumont's lieutenant. Two of the Tournais brothers were killed at Batouche.

Trouble Among Cattlemen. KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 21.—Information has been received here of a new move on the part of cattlemen in the northern part of the Texas Panhandle, to prevent the driving of Southern Texas cattle over their range. A herd passing northward was stopped at Texas cows on the Canadian river by the sheriff, asking under a writ in trespass and the matter has been carried into the courts with the intention of making it a test case.

Heaver City Burned.

MONTREAL, May 21.—Word has been received here to the effect that the Rocky Mountain town, Beaver City, on the Canadian Pacific railway, has been destroyed by a fire. The loss is $100,000.
